

New trustees appointed to Operation RoundUp board

Southeastern Indiana REMC has announced the appointment of three new trustees to the Operation RoundUp board, representing Franklin, Jennings and Jefferson counties.

Christy Honnert* will serve as the Franklin County representative, replacing Jennifer Meer.

Amy Thompson* has been appointed to represent Jennings County, succeeding Tina Ellis.

Bobby Hacker* will represent Jefferson County, taking over for Bridget Leach.

The Operation RoundUp board of trustees is made up of volunteer representatives from each county in SEI REMC's service territory. The board meets twice a year to review grant applications and award funding to local nonprofit organizations, schools and community groups working to improve quality of life in southeastern Indiana.

SEI REMC extends its gratitude to outgoing trustees Jennifer Meer, Tina Ellis and Bridget Leach for their dedicated service. Their contributions have helped make Operation RoundUp a meaningful and impactful program in the communities served by the cooperative.
